Miss Mary Ellen Wingfield Wed To William Allen Watson

The marriage of Miss Mary Ellen Wingfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hampton Wingfield, to Mr. William Allen Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John William Watson, all of Appomattox, took place Friday evening, June 26, at 8 o'clock in Hollywood Baptist Church, Appomattox, Va.

The Rev. Winfred H. Elder, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Winfred Elder.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown fashioned of white starched chiffon and chantill lace. The lace bodice was finished with a Victorian neckline and long trumpet sleeves. Motifs of lace accented the skirt. Her floor length veil of imported illusion, edged with a wide band of lace, formed a chapel train and was attached to a lace crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias accented with pom poms and stephanotis.

Miss Julia Frances Wingfield sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length dress of nile green fashioned with a fitted bodice, V-neckline, short sleeves and A-line skirt with flowing back fullness. She wore a matching headpiece of silk illusion. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Mr. Watson was his son's best man. Ushers were Ronnie E. Woodall, cousin of the bride, of Lynchburg, Va. and Billie Cumby, nephew of the bridegroom of Appomattox.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride were hosts for a reception at their home in Appomattox

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox High School and is employed in Appomattox.

The bridegroom is attending Appomattox High School and is employed in Appomattox.

After a wedding trip the couple will live in Appomattox.
